

EUPHORIA | Sky Atlantic 10.10PM

After discovering Maddy's bruises – inflicted by Nate – her mother decides to get the police involved in tonight's episode of the compelling teen drama. But Nate is reluctant to accept responsibility, and Maddy herself is unwilling to accept what's really going on between them. Meanwhile, Rue tells her mother that she and Jules are dating, but Jules is worried about just how much Rue depends on her.

HARROW | Alibi 9PM

Grace carries out an autopsy on the body of an elderly man found inside an Egyptian sarcophagus tonight – we'll file that under 'just another day at the office', shall we? Harrow, meanwhile, finds himself caught up in a fight for his own life

DARREN MCGARVEY'S SCOTLAND | BBC Scotland 9PM

Rapper and activist Darren McGarvey takes cameras around Scotland in this six-part series to highlight the rise of poverty and inequality. But he'll also be drawing attention to grass-roots projects that are fighting for a better Scotland.
